

The Long Island Coalition Against Bullying
Social Media Internship Opportunity

LICAB Mission:

Emphasizing the importance of bully free communities on Long Island through education, increased awareness and therapeutic outlets.

Position:

Social Media Internship, The Long Island Coalition Against Bullying

Job Type:

*Non-profit, volunteer role

*Hybrid

*Two to three days a week according to availability. Weekday availability, with some weekend availability, is greatly preferred.

Location:

Primarily remote work, however some in physical appearances will be required and locations for will vary.

Overview:

The Long Island Coalition Against Bullying is looking for an enthusiastic and self-starting social media intern who can generate social media engagement, create/share content and spearhead awareness campaigns through the Long Island Coalition Against Bullying's various social media platforms. Interns will be trained on the day-to-day operations of our social media team. We are looking for candidates who are open to learning new skills, and will lend their efforts towards making Long Island a more inclusive place for all!

Responsibilities:

Interns will be directly assisting and reporting to the Social Media Coordinator/Manager. Interns will be responsible for planning, creating and posting social media posts and livestream events via the Long Island Coalition Against Bullying social media outlets. Interns are responsible for attending and assisting events hosted by the Long Island Coalition Against Bullying.

Desired Qualifications:

Proficiency in DropBox, Google Drive, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snapchat, Tiktok, Canva and Google Calendar.

*Experience is encouraged but not required.

To be considered for this internship please submit:

- Resume
- Cover Letter
- Days/Hours Available

*Please email resume, cover letter, availability and any questions to Rena Thomas, Internship Coordinator at RThomas@licab.org.

For more information on the Long Island Coalition Against Bullying, please visit <https://www.licab.org/>